I, Robert L. Davis, a notary public in and for said County, in the State aforesaid, DO HEREBY CERTIFY that John J. Mitchell, F. S. Winston, H. G. Selfridge, H. R. McCullough, John Farson, Charles H. Wacker, John Dupee, J. L. Cochran, Arthur Meeker, Frederic A. Delano, William G. Beale, H. H. Kohlsaas, H. H. Porter, Jr., John A. Spoor and Henry Dibblee, personally known to me to be the same persons whose names are subscribed to the foregoing instrument, appeared before me this day in person and acknowledged that they signed and delivered said instrument as their free and voluntary act, for the uses and purposes therein set forth.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and notarial seal, this 19th day of May, A. D. 1903.

Notary Public, Cook County, Illinois.

BY - LAWS

ARTICLE I

Management

SEC. 1. The property and affairs of the Club shall be managed by Fifteen Trustees to be elected from its members and by its members.

SEC. 2. The Trustees shall, at their first meeting after organization and after each annual election of the Club, elect from their own number a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, who shall hold office for one year and until their successors are elected and have qualified.

SEC. 3. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Club and of the Trustees. He shall, with the Secretary, sign all written contracts and obligations of the Club, except bank checks and shall exercise the usual functions pertaining to his office.

SEC. 4. The Vice-President shall have the power, and perform the duties of the President, in the latter's absence.

SEC. 5. The Secretary shall keep the minutes and records and conduct the correspondence of the Club and of the Trustees. He shall, with the President, sign all written contracts and obligations of the Club, except bank checks, have the custody of the seal of the Club, and perform the usual duties pertaining to his office. The Secretary shall be ex-officio Assistant Treasurer.

SEC. 6. The Treasurer shall collect and receive all moneys due and belonging to the Club, and shall have the custody of all funds, securities and title deeds thereof. He shall pay all bills on the certificate of their correctness by one member of the House Committee. He shall keep regular and correct accounts and submit a monthly report to the Trustees. He shall submit at each annual meeting a report, showing the financial condition of the Club. The Treasurer shall be ex-officio Assistant Secretary.

SEC. 7. The Trustees shall appoint a committee of five from their own number, to be known as the House Committee, whose duty it shall be, subject to the direction and control of the Trustees, to direct and manage the affairs of the Club, to receive and act upon complaints and suggestions of members, and to make rules for the use of the Club rooms by the members, and for their conduct therein.

ARTICLE II

Meetings

SEC. 1. There shall be an annual meeting of the Club on the third Thursday of May each year, at two o'clock in the afternoon. If no quorum be present, the presiding officer shall adjourn the meeting to another day at the same hour.

SEC. 2. Upon the written request of twenty-five members, the Trustees shall call a special meeting to consider a specific subject.

SEC. 3. Twenty-five members shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Club.

SEC. 4. The Trustees shall meet at least once a month, and as often as they may think necessary. Five shall constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE III

Election of Trustees

SEC. 1. The fifteen Trustees named in the certificate of incorporation shall be the Trustees until May 19, 1904. The Trustees so constituted shall, in accordance with the certificate of incorporation, divide themselves, by lot, into three classes, of five each, and the term of office of the first class shall expire on the date of the annual meeting in 1904, of the second class on the date of the annual meeting in 1905, and of the third class on the date of the annual meeting in 1906, or when their successors shall have been elected and qualified.

SEC. 2. At each subsequent annual meeting of the Club five Trustees shall be elected to replace the outgoing class, who shall hold office for three years, or until their successors are elected and have qualified.

SEC. 3. The election of Trustees shall be by ballot, and the poll shall be kept open from 1 o'clock to 4 o'clock P. M.

SEC. 4. The five candidates receiving the largest number of votes shall be deemed to be chosen at such election.

SEC. 5. A vacancy existing among the Trustees from any cause other than the expiration of a term may be filled by themselves for the remainder of the term of the Trustee whose resignation or retirement has caused such vacancy.

SEC. 6. The Trustees shall, at their stated meeting in the month of April in each year, appoint a Nominating Committee, composed of three members of the Club at large, who shall select candidates to be voted for at the ensuing annual election of Trustees. The names of such candidates shall be posted for two weeks preceding such election.

SEC. 7. No member shall be eligible for election as a Trustee unless his name shall have been posted as a candidate in a conspicuous place in the Club rooms for at least five days before the election.

ARTICLE IV

Membership

SEC. 1. The number of members may, in the discretion of the Trustees, be increased from time to time, but not to exceed seven hundred fifty. Any person twenty-one years of age may become a member of the Club upon election by the Trustees, and upon payment of the initiation fees and semi-annual dues.

SEC. 2. Candidates for membership (other than those elected prior to July 1, 1903) must be proposed and seconded by two members, in their own handwriting, in a book kept for that purpose, and their names shall be posted in a conspicuous place in the Club rooms at least ten days before any action can be taken thereon by the Trustees. The requirements of this article may be modified by the Trustees pending the occupancy by the Club of its Club rooms.

SEC. 3. Candidates duly proposed and seconded, whose names shall have been posted for a period of ten days, as above provided, shall be balloted for by the Trustees, for admission to the Club, one adverse ballot in five excluding.

SEC. 4. Persons not residing within fifty miles of the City of Chicago may be elected non-resident members, and shall have all the rights and privileges of membership in the Club except that of voting, but they shall not be counted among the number to which the membership is limited.

SEC. 5. Candidates for non-resident membership must be proposed and elected in the same manner as is provided for the proposal and election of candidates for full membership.

SEC. 6. A non-resident member may become a full member by notifying the Treasurer of his desire to become such, upon the first occurrence of a vacancy in the list of membership. Such non-resident member shall, when such vacancy occurs, upon payment to the Treasurer of the difference between the amount of the entrance fee then required from full members and that originally paid by him, be and become a full member and subject to full dues.

SEC. 7. A full member may become a non-resident member at any time by notifying the Treasurer of his right to and desire for such membership, and upon his application being approved by the Trustees; but he shall not be entitled to any return or rebate of annual dues for the then current year.

SEC. 8. On the election of a candidate the Treasurer shall notify the candidate and also his proposer of the fact, and if such newly elected member shall not within thirty days after such notification pay to the Treasurer his entrance fee and annual dues, his election shall be void.

SEC. 9. Any member desiring to withdraw from the Club must signify such intention in writing to the Treasurer before the first day of January or the first day of July, otherwise he shall be liable to pay his semi-annual dues for the succeeding six months.

SEC. 10. A former member who has resigned in good standing, upon being again proposed for membership, shall be balloted for before any other candidate.

SEC. 11. Any member may be suspended or expelled for cause by a vote of two-thirds of all the

THE MID-DAY CLUB

Trustees. A copy of the charges preferred against a member shall be served upon him, either personally or by mail, at least three weeks before the meeting of the Trustees, at which the same shall be considered, together with a notice of the time and place of such meeting; and the member shall be entitled to be heard at such meeting.

ARTICLE V

Entrance Fees and Dues

SEC. 1. The trustees may fix from time to time, the amount of the annual dues and entrance fees, but such dues and fees shall not exceed the following: Annual dues for resident members, One Hundred dollars; annual dues for non-resident members, Fifty dollars; initiation fees for resident members, Two Hundred dollars, initiation fees for non-resident members, One Hundred dollars.

SEC. 2. The semi-annual dues shall be payable on the first days of January and July in each year, and, if not paid within thirty days, the member in default shall cease to be a member of the Club, unless excused by a vote of the Trustees.

SEC. 3. A member who shall be continuously absent from the City of Chicago for a period of not less than six months may have one-half of his semi-annual dues remitted during such absence, provided he shall notify the Treasurer of his intended absence prior to his departure.

ARTICLE VI

Visitors

SEC. 1. Any member may invite friends to accompany him to the Club rooms, under such regulations as the House Committee shall prescribe. The charges incurred for their guests shall, in all cases, be borne by the members introducing them.

SEC. 2. A member may invite to the use of the privileges of the Club, for a period of two weeks, a person neither resident nor doing business in the city, nor residing within fifty miles of the City of Chicago, but may not have more than one such guest at a time. A two weeks' visitor may not be again introduced during a period of three months from the date of his former introduction. The names and residences of such visitors and the names of the members introducing them must be recorded, and members shall be responsible for any indebtedness incurred by their guests. Any such privilege may be revoked by the House Committee or the Board of Trustees.

SEC. 3. Officers of the Army and Navy of the United States and official representatives of foreign nations residing but temporarily in Chicago and not citizens of the United States may be elected in the manner prescribed for regular members, but they shall be exempt from the payment of the initiation fee, and shall pay one-half of the regular dues, and shall not be allowed to vote.

THE MID-DAY CLUB

SEC. 4. The Trustees may invite any stranger of distinction to the use of the privileges of the Club for such period as they may deem proper, and they may cancel and revoke an invitation given to any stranger.

ARTICLE VII

Accounts

Members shall discharge their indebtedness for supplies ordered in each month by the twentieth day of the following month. The names of members who shall fail to do so shall be posted, and notices thereof shall be mailed to them. A member thus posted who shall fail to pay his indebtedness within ten days thereafter may, at the discretion of the Trustees, be suspended from the privileges of the Club.

The House Committee, in the intervals between the regular meetings of the Trustees, shall have the power, at any time, to limit or suspend the credit of any member.

A member failing to pay an amount due the Club (except the semi-annual dues) three weeks after notice of debt, and a request from the House Committee to pay the same, may have his membership forfeited at a regular meeting of the Board of Trustees by a majority vote of those present.

ARTICLE VIII

Seal

A common seal is hereby adopted, an impression of which is below:

ARTICLE IX

Amendments

These By-Laws may be modified, altered, or amended at any annual meeting of the Club, or at any adjourned session thereof.

RULES OF THE TRUSTEES

Stated Meetings

1. Stated meetings of the Trustees shall be held at the Club rooms, on the third Thursday of each month at 1 o'clock P. M.

Special Meetings

2. The Secretary shall, whenever so requested in writing by the President, Vice-President or three Trustees, call a special meeting of the Board by causing at least one day's notice of the time and place of such meeting, and of the business to be considered thereat, to be sent to all the Trustees. No business except that of which notice shall have been given as above provided shall be transacted at any special meeting.

Order of Business

3. The order of business at every stated meeting shall be as follows:

- (1) Calling the roll.
- (2) Reading of the minutes of the preceding stated meeting and of any special meeting since held.
- (3) Report of the Secretary.
- (4) Report of the Treasurer.
- (5) Report of the House Committee.

Rules of the Trustees

- (6) Reports of Special Committees.
- (7) Election of new members.
- (8) Miscellaneous business.

Secretary's Report

4. The Secretary shall report at every stated meeting all correspondence had since the last preceding meeting except letters relating to candidates proposed for admission to membership.

Treasurer's Report

5. The Treasurer shall report in writing at every stated meeting the general condition of the Club.

House Committee's Report

6. The House Committee shall report at every stated meeting the general condition of the affairs and management of the Club, and such special matters as they may desire to call to the attention of the Trustees.

No Trustee to Propose Candidates

7. No Trustee shall propose nor second a candidate for membership.

Candidates for Membership

8. No name of a candidate for membership shall be acted upon unless he be personally known to a Trustee present, or vouched for in writing by a Trustee, and a letter of recommendation shall have been received from his proposer or seconder.

If, when the name of a candidate shall first come before the Board for action, these requirements shall not have been complied with, it shall be laid over until the next meeting; at the second appearance under the same condition it shall be placed at the foot of the list, and upon its again coming up in order, should these requirements still not be complied with, it shall be dropped from the list.

Election of Members

9. The names of candidates for full membership duly proposed and posted in accordance with the provisions of the By-Laws, and in regard to which the requirements of Rule 8 shall have been complied with, shall be acted upon in the order of their proposal. The name of any candidate when it shall first come before the Board for action shall, at the request of any Trustee present, be passed over for consideration at the next meeting.

Each candidate shall be balloted for separately, and the result of each ballot, as provided for in Section 3 of By-Laws IV, shall be declared by the Chair.

Election of Non-Residents

10. The names of candidates for non-resident membership shall be acted on in the same manner and with the like effect as is provided for in the case of full members, and a separate list of such candidates shall be kept by the Secretary.

Election of Visitors

11. The names of those proposed as visitors, under Section 3 of By-Laws VI, shall be voted upon separately by ballot, and one negative vote in five shall reject.

Strangers of Distinction

12. Strangers of distinction may be invited to the use of the privileges of the Club under Section 4 of By-Laws VI, by a vote of two-thirds of the Trustees present at any meeting; but any invitation so given may be revoked at any meeting by a vote of a majority of those present.

House Committee

13. The members of the House Committee provided for by Section 7 of By-Laws I, shall continue in office so long as they remain Trustees, until their successors are chosen. Any member of the House Committee may at any time be replaced thereon by the choice of a successor by a vote of a majority of all the Trustees. The House Committee may at any time suspend an invitation given to any stranger under the provisions of Sections 1, 2 and 3 of By-Laws VI, reporting their action at the next meeting of the Trustees. The House Committee may make suitable rules for the conduct of the business entrusted to them. The rules of the House Committee provided for by Section 7 of By-Laws I, may be added to, altered or repealed at any meeting by a vote of a majority of all Trustees, and any rules of the House Committee for their own conduct may be imposed, altered or repealed by a like vote of the Trustees.

THE MID-DAY CLUB

Proceedings Confidential

14. All proceedings relating to the election of members and all communications respecting candidates shall be regarded as confidential and shall not be divulged. All letters concerning a candidate except those from his proposer and seconder shall, when his name has been finally acted on, be destroyed.

Amendments, Etc.

15. These rules may be amended, added to or repealed at any stated meeting by a vote of two-thirds of those present, provided notice of the proposed amendment, addition or repeal shall have been given at a preceding stated meeting. The operation of any of these rules except that of Rule 2 may be suspended at any time by unanimous consent.

RULES OF THE HOUSE COMMITTEE

Hours

1. The Club rooms shall be open for the admission of members daily (except Sundays), from 8 o'clock A. M. until 6 o'clock P. M.

Restrictions

2. Smoking is allowed in the main dining room at all hours.

No books, periodicals or newspapers shall be taken from the reading room.

Servants shall not be sent out of the Club rooms by a member.

Dogs shall not be brought into Club rooms.

Private Dining Rooms

3. Private rooms may be engaged for four or more persons, one of whom must be a member, for which there will be a charge of $2.00.

Application for such use must be received before 10:30 o'clock.

Cancellations of reservations may be made up to 10:30 without charge. After 10:30 a reservation may be cancelled but not the charge therefor.

THE MID-DAY CLUB

Complaints

4. Complaints and suggestions as to cooking, attendance, service and the general administration of the internal affairs of the Club must be made in writing and signed by the members making them. All such complaints and suggestions will receive the attention of the House Committee on the Wednesday following their date.

Visitors

5. Members inviting friends to accompany them to the Club rooms, under Section 1 of By-Laws VI, shall register their names in a book provided for the purpose. A non-member shall not be allowed the privileges of the Club unless accompanied by a member. At no time shall a non-member be allowed to sign a member's name.

The By-Laws referred to shall not be construed to permit the habitual use of the Club rooms by a non-member.

Coat Rooms

6. Checks will be given at the coat rooms for hats, coats, and umbrellas, but the Club will not be responsible for any article there lost.

Supplies

7. Any member may himself take or send away from the Club any provisions ordered by him, but none shall be sent out to a member except upon permission of a member of the House Committee.

Rules of the House Committee

Fees

8. Servants must not be feed. An employee of the Club who receives a fee or gratuity in any form from a member or visitor will be dismissed.
